

E. J. HARPSTRITE.

THE JEWELER

Has just received the finest line of Onyx Bronze and Silver Bronze Clocks and Figures ever shown in the city. If you want something for a wedding present, call and look at these goods, and I am sure you will be suited.

I wish you to take a look at my show window and for once be convinced of these facts.

E. J. HARPSTRITE.

THE JEWELER, 146 EAST PRAIRIE

PERSONAL.

Miss Annie McDonald will return from her vacation Tuesday and will be at the Store Wednesday Morning, Ready to Receive orders for the New and Beautiful in Millinery for early Autumn Trade. Large Line of New Goods. Inspection Solicited.

Respectfully,
S. G. HATCH & BRO.
August 29, 1890.

$6.50 $6.50

Buys one ton of the Best Hard

COAL

(ALL RAIL OLD LEE) MINED AT MANTICHOKE, PA. ALSO THE BEST OF LUMP COAL WELL SCREENED AT PRICES AS LOW AS THE LOWEST AT

I. SCHOOLCRAFT'S
835 E. Eldorado st. Telephone No. 3.

A. O. BOLEN,

REAL ESTATE, INSURANCE AND LOANS OFFICE, OVER MILLIKIN'S BANK, DECATUR, ILLINOIS.

If you want a house and lot I have some bargains. I have a few houses and lots on monthly payments. Money to loan on city property and see me, no trouble to show you what I have to offer. If you want to sell your property leave it with me, I will sell it for you. If you want to trade I can give you a snap; have property of all kinds for sale or trade.

MORNING REVIEW

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER, 6, 1890.

MATTERS OF FACT.

New goods at Mulcahy & Son. Ask to see our fine doll heads, at the 5 and 10 cent store.

Second-hand books bought and sold at Saxton & Andrews.

Go to G. P. Hart for all kinds of upholstery, Library book.

1,000 copies of new music just received at the 5 and 10 cent store.

Stop and look at our new goods in our show windows at the 5 and 10 cent store.

Avoid the grand rush. Come now and select your school books at Saxton & Andrews.

If you want something nobby and nice, out in latest styles, don't forget to call on Mulcahy & Son.

Most of these new goods have just arrived at the 5 and 10 cent store, No. 118 Merchant street.

The price for the very best hard coal is only $6.50 a ton at E. L. Martin's, 628 North Main street. Telephone No. 439.

Eighteen-inch wax dolls, dressed after wax dolls and bisque dolls just received at the 5 and 10 cent store. They are going fast.

Schools open Monday, Sept. 8th. Scholars can now make their selection of school books at Saxton & Andrews, next door to the postoffice.

We guarantee to save you from $5 to $10 on tail dresses and prince Albert suits, and a proportionate amount on business suits. Mulcahy & Son.

Now is the time to buy a piano or organ and Prescott's on North Water street is the place. Be sure you see him and his large stock before you place an order.

Always remember that E. W. Chandler does the best shoe repairing in the city. He is to be found in Tabernacle building and always ready to get out your work on short notice.

Just received at Irwin's pharmacy, over a thousand dollars worth of reliable extracts, pills, elixirs, medicated syrups and chemicals for the prescription department, which is acknowledged the finest in the city.

The Demand for Old Wheat Flour is being met by John G. Cloyd, the Main Street Grocer, who still has on hand a large stock of Pillsbury's Best, bought before new wheat was in market. Be sure to ask for this Brand.

Prime Live Geese Feathers always on sale at Mattress Factory, Library block. W. D. CHAMBERLAIN & Co.

Something New. In order to introduce "The Ladies Tailor," a perfect system for dress cutting, Messrs. Bailey and Adams will for the next ten days, out a perfect fitting lining free of charge, for every lady buying a dress at Linn & Scruggs Dry Goods and Carpet Company.

Sept. 1st, 1890. Special. Takes meals and board at Combs' restaurant. Best appointed place in the city. Everything first-class. Opposite the Grand Opera House, 139 South Water street.

George Owen's Case. George Owen, who was adjudged to be sane Thursday, was before Justice Hamner yesterday on two state warrants, one being for the burglary of Chamberlain's store and the other of Williams Bros. store. He waived examination and in default of $800 bond was committed to jail to wait the action of the grand jury. It is the opinion of many who do not think him crazy, that he is of very weak mind and probably a kleptomaniac.

Col. Mathias Materna. Col. Mathias returned last night from Rochester, Ind., where the remains of his wife were taken for burial. With him came his wife's mother, Mrs. Culver, and his three children. Mrs. Culver will live here for a time, keeping house for Col. Mathias and taking care of the children. It was a sad journey for him, although he was shown all possible kindness and sympathy. His first inquiry here was as to Crawford's condition.

Col. Mathias Materna. Col. Mathias returned last night from Rochester, Ind., where the remains of his wife were taken for burial. With him came his wife's mother, Mrs. Culver, and his three children. Mrs. Culver will live here for a time, keeping house for Col. Mathias and taking care of the children. It was a sad journey for him, although he was shown all possible kindness and sympathy. His first inquiry here was as to Crawford's condition.

Col. Mathias Materna. Col. Mathias returned last night from Rochester, Ind., where the remains of his wife were taken for burial. With him came his wife's mother, Mrs. Culver, and his three children. Mrs. Culver will live here for a time, keeping house for Col. Mathias and taking care of the children. It was a sad journey for him, although he was shown all possible kindness and sympathy. His first inquiry here was as to Crawford's condition.

Col. Mathias Materna. Col. Mathias returned last night from Rochester, Ind., where the remains of his wife were taken for burial. With him came his wife's mother, Mrs. Culver, and his three children. Mrs. Culver will live here for a time, keeping house for Col. Mathias and taking care of the children. It was a sad journey for him, although he was shown all possible kindness and sympathy. His first inquiry here was as to Crawford's condition.

Col. Mathias Materna. Col. Mathias returned last night from Rochester, Ind., where the remains of his wife were taken for burial. With him came his wife's mother, Mrs. Culver, and his three children. Mrs. Culver will live here for a time, keeping house for Col. Mathias and taking care of the children. It was a sad journey for him, although he was shown all possible kindness and sympathy. His first inquiry here was as to Crawford's condition.

Col. Mathias Materna. Col. Mathias returned last night from Rochester, Ind., where the remains of his wife were taken for burial. With him came his wife's mother, Mrs. Culver, and his three children. Mrs. Culver will live here for a time, keeping house for Col. Mathias and taking care of the children. It was a sad journey for him, although he was shown all possible kindness and sympathy. His first inquiry here was as to Crawford's condition.

Col. Mathias Materna. Col. Mathias returned last night from Rochester, Ind., where the remains of his wife were taken for burial. With him came his wife's mother, Mrs. Culver, and his three children. Mrs. Culver will live here for a time, keeping house for Col. Mathias and taking care of the children. It was a sad journey for him, although he was shown all possible kindness and sympathy. His first inquiry here was as to Crawford's condition.

Col. Mathias Materna. Col. Mathias returned last night from Rochester, Ind., where the remains of his wife were taken for burial. With him came his wife's mother, Mrs. Culver, and his three children. Mrs. Culver will live here for a time, keeping house for Col. Mathias and taking care of the children. It was a sad journey for him, although he was shown all possible kindness and sympathy. His first inquiry here was as to Crawford's condition.

Col. Mathias Materna. Col. Mathias returned last night from Rochester, Ind., where the remains of his wife were taken for burial. With him came his wife's mother, Mrs. Culver, and his three children. Mrs. Culver will live here for a time, keeping house for Col. Mathias and taking care of the children. It was a sad journey for him, although he was shown all possible kindness and sympathy. His first inquiry here was as to Crawford's condition.

Col. Mathias Materna. Col. Mathias returned last night from Rochester, Ind., where the remains of his wife were taken for burial. With him came his wife's mother, Mrs. Culver, and his three children. Mrs. Culver will live here for a time, keeping house for Col. Mathias and taking care of the children. It was a sad journey for him, although he was shown all possible kindness and sympathy. His first inquiry here was as to Crawford's condition.

Col. Mathias Materna. Col. Mathias returned last night from Rochester, Ind., where the remains of his wife were taken for burial. With him came his wife's mother, Mrs. Culver, and his three children. Mrs. Culver will live here for a time, keeping house for Col. Mathias and taking care of the children. It was a sad journey for him, although he was shown all possible kindness and sympathy. His first inquiry here was as to Crawford's condition.

Col. Mathias Materna. Col. Mathias returned last night from Rochester, Ind., where the remains of his wife were taken for burial. With him came his wife's mother, Mrs. Culver, and his three children. Mrs. Culver will live here for a time, keeping house for Col. Mathias and taking care of the children. It was a sad journey for him, although he was shown all possible kindness and sympathy. His first inquiry here was as to Crawford's condition.

Col. Mathias Materna. Col. Mathias returned last night from Rochester, Ind., where the remains of his wife were taken for burial. With him came his wife's mother, Mrs. Culver, and his three children. Mrs. Culver will live here for a time, keeping house for Col. Mathias and taking care of the children. It was a sad journey for him, although he was shown all possible kindness and sympathy. His first inquiry here was as to Crawford's condition.

MRS. WILSON'S STORY.

Her Husband Gets Her Into a Great Deal of Trouble.

Mrs. Dora Wilson, the woman arrested and jailed with her husband for mortgaging her household goods the second time, was turned out of jail yesterday. Before she was released she turned all her household goods at 811 North Water street, over to Archie Tuttle, who paid the indebtedness on them, and will hold the goods for her to redeem if she can do it in three months. The furniture was taken and stored away. Mrs. Wilson got of jail only to see the last load carted off, leaving in the place of what had been a comfortable home, only a bleak and empty house, without a stick or stich of furniture.

The story of Mrs. Wilson is a sad one, though not different from that of thousands of women, whose life is filled with sorrow by those whom they trust and honor with their love. She married Wilson, thinking he was a gentleman. She supposed he had a good business and would attend to it. Instead of that he is a loafer, who makes a living by his wits.

Most of the furniture in the house belonged to Mrs. Wilson and her three sisters. The things were mortgaged three different times, and each time a statement was made that they were free from incumbrance. The officers say Mrs. Wilson did that because her husband told her it was all right; that she had no intention of doing wrong. It made her liable with him, however, to a state penitentiary sentence, and therefore when the fraud was discovered she went to jail with him. That much has been told her before.

Wednesday was the day she was arrested. Her little sisters were left without anyone to care for them and they were taken in by a neighbor, Sam Moran. Yesterday, though she was released, she had no way to keep them, and they were scattered around. The smallest Mrs. Moran will keep. The next of age, about 12, Harry Midkiff took to his home to give her shelter for the present. The oldest one was unprovided for last night, though it was likely that she would be sent back to Springfield, where her father lives. His name is Gardner. "Squire Gardner, the girl said. He won't take care of the girls, but puts them all off on Mrs. Wilson, who is a person of respectability and good intentions, and does her best to do what is right.

Mrs. Wilson is not likely to stay long out of jail, even if she is not already back there. She was arrested, the officers say, in time for mortgaging her goods a second time. They were mortgaged a third time to Scott & Marshall, in that instance, and they had issued yesterday a warrant for her arrest. So, while she was released yesterday, it was the intention to rearrest her soon again. Her husband has been in jail all the time and will stay there until the grand jury works on his case.

She was arrested, the officers say, in time for mortgaging her goods a second time. They were mortgaged a third time to Scott & Marshall, in that instance, and they had issued yesterday a warrant for her arrest. So, while she was released yesterday, it was the intention to rearrest her soon again. Her husband has been in jail all the time and will stay there until the grand jury works on his case.

She was arrested, the officers say, in time for mortgaging her goods a second time. They were mortgaged a third time to Scott & Marshall, in that instance, and they had issued yesterday a warrant for her arrest. So, while she was released yesterday, it was the intention to rearrest her soon again. Her husband has been in jail all the time and will stay there until the grand jury works on his case.

She was arrested, the officers say, in time for mortgaging her goods a second time. They were mortgaged a third time to Scott & Marshall, in that instance, and they had issued yesterday a warrant for her arrest. So, while she was released yesterday, it was the intention to rearrest her soon again. Her husband has been in jail all the time and will stay there until the grand jury works on his case.

She was arrested, the officers say, in time for mortgaging her goods a second time. They were mortgaged a third time to Scott & Marshall, in that instance, and they had issued yesterday a warrant for her arrest. So, while she was released yesterday, it was the intention to rearrest her soon again. Her husband has been in jail all the time and will stay there until the grand jury works on his case.

She was arrested, the officers say, in time for mortgaging her goods a second time. They were mortgaged a third time to Scott & Marshall, in that instance, and they had issued yesterday a warrant for her arrest. So, while she was released yesterday, it was the intention to rearrest her soon again. Her husband has been in jail all the time and will stay there until the grand jury works on his case.

She was arrested, the officers say, in time for mortgaging her goods a second time. They were mortgaged a third time to Scott & Marshall, in that instance, and they had issued yesterday a warrant for her arrest. So, while she was released yesterday, it was the intention to rearrest her soon again. Her husband has been in jail all the time and will stay there until the grand jury works on his case.

She was arrested, the officers say, in time for mortgaging her goods a second time. They were mortgaged a third time to Scott & Marshall, in that instance, and they had issued yesterday a warrant for her arrest. So, while she was released yesterday, it was the intention to rearrest her soon again. Her husband has been in jail all the time and will stay there until the grand jury works on his case.

She was arrested, the officers say, in time for mortgaging her goods a second time. They were mortgaged a third time to Scott & Marshall, in that instance, and they had issued yesterday a warrant for her arrest. So, while she was released yesterday, it was the intention to rearrest her soon again. Her husband has been in jail all the time and will stay there until the grand jury works on his case.

She was arrested, the officers say, in time for mortgaging her goods a second time. They were mortgaged a third time to Scott & Marshall, in that instance, and they had issued yesterday a warrant for her arrest. So, while she was released yesterday, it was the intention to rearrest her soon again. Her husband has been in jail all the time and will stay there until the grand jury works on his case.

She was arrested, the officers say, in time for mortgaging her goods a second time. They were mortgaged a third time to Scott & Marshall, in that instance, and they had issued yesterday a warrant for her arrest. So, while she was released yesterday, it was the intention to rearrest her soon again. Her husband has been in jail all the time and will stay there until the grand jury works on his case.

She was arrested, the officers say, in time for mortgaging her goods a second time. They were mortgaged a third time to Scott & Marshall, in that instance, and they had issued yesterday a warrant for her arrest. So, while she was released yesterday, it was the intention to rearrest her soon again. Her husband has been in jail all the time and will stay there until the grand jury works on his case.

She was arrested, the officers say, in time for mortgaging her goods a second time. They were mortgaged a third time to Scott & Marshall, in that instance, and they had issued yesterday a warrant for her arrest. So, while she was released yesterday, it was the intention to rearrest her soon again. Her husband has been in jail all the time and will stay there until the grand jury works on his case.

She was arrested, the officers say, in time for mortgaging her goods a second time. They were mortgaged a third time to Scott & Marshall, in that instance, and they had issued yesterday a warrant for her arrest. So, while she was released yesterday, it was the intention to rearrest her soon again. Her husband has been in jail all the time and will stay there until the grand jury works on his case.

She was arrested, the officers say, in time for mortgaging her goods a second time. They were mortgaged a third time to Scott & Marshall, in that instance, and they had issued yesterday a warrant for her arrest. So, while she was released yesterday, it was the intention to rearrest her soon again. Her husband has been in jail all the time and will stay there until the grand jury works on his case.

She was arrested, the officers say, in time for mortgaging her goods a second time. They were mortgaged a third time to Scott & Marshall, in that instance, and they had issued yesterday a warrant for her arrest. So, while she was released yesterday, it was the intention to rearrest her soon again. Her husband has been in jail all the time and will stay there until the grand jury works on his case.

She was arrested, the officers say, in time for mortgaging her goods a second time. They were mortgaged a third time to Scott & Marshall, in that instance, and they had issued yesterday a warrant for her arrest. So, while she was released yesterday, it was the intention to rearrest her soon again. Her husband has been in jail all the time and will stay there until the grand jury works on his case.

She was arrested, the officers say, in time for mortgaging her goods a second time. They were mortgaged a third time to Scott & Marshall, in that instance, and they had issued yesterday a warrant for her arrest. So, while she was released yesterday, it was the intention to rearrest her soon again. Her husband has been in jail all the time and will stay there until the grand jury works on his case.

She was arrested, the officers say, in time for mortgaging her goods a second time. They were mortgaged a third time to Scott & Marshall, in that instance, and they had issued yesterday a warrant for her arrest. So, while she was released yesterday, it was the intention to rearrest her soon again. Her husband has been in jail all the time and will stay there until the grand jury works on his case.

She was arrested, the officers say, in time for mortgaging her goods a second time. They were mortgaged a third time to Scott & Marshall, in that instance, and they had issued yesterday a warrant for her arrest. So, while she was released yesterday, it was the intention to rearrest her soon again. Her husband has been in jail all the time and will stay there until the grand jury works on his case.

She was arrested, the officers say, in time for mortgaging her goods a second time. They were mortgaged a third time to Scott & Marshall, in that instance, and they had issued yesterday a warrant for her arrest. So, while she was released yesterday, it was the intention to rearrest her soon again. Her husband has been in jail all the time and will stay there until the grand jury works on his case.

She was arrested, the officers say, in time for mortgaging her goods a second time. They were mortgaged a third time to Scott & Marshall, in that instance, and they had issued yesterday a warrant for her arrest. So, while she was released yesterday, it was the intention to rearrest her soon again. Her husband has been in jail all the time and will stay there until the grand jury works on his case.

She was arrested, the officers say, in time for mortgaging her goods a second time. They were mortgaged a third time to Scott & Marshall, in that instance, and they had issued yesterday a warrant for her arrest. So, while she was released yesterday, it was the intention to rearrest her soon again. Her husband has been in jail all the time and will stay there until the grand jury works on his case.

She was arrested, the officers say, in time for mortgaging her goods a second time. They were mortgaged a third time to Scott & Marshall, in that instance, and they had issued yesterday a warrant for her arrest. So, while she was released yesterday, it was the intention to rearrest her soon again. Her husband has been in jail all the time and will stay there until the grand jury works on his case.

She was arrested, the officers say, in time for mortgaging her goods a second time. They were mortgaged a third time to Scott & Marshall, in that instance, and they had issued yesterday a warrant for her arrest. So, while she was released yesterday, it was the intention to rearrest her soon again. Her husband has been in jail all the time and will stay there until the grand jury works on his case.

She was arrested, the officers say, in time for mortgaging her goods a second time. They were mortgaged a third time to Scott & Marshall, in that instance, and they had issued yesterday a warrant for her arrest. So, while she was released yesterday, it was the intention to rearrest her soon again. Her husband has been in jail all the time and will stay there until the grand jury works on his case.

She was arrested, the officers say, in time for mortgaging her goods a second time. They were mortgaged a third time to Scott & Marshall, in that instance, and they had issued yesterday a warrant for her arrest. So, while she was released yesterday, it was the intention to rearrest her soon again. Her husband has been in jail all the time and will stay there until the grand jury works on his case.

She was arrested, the officers say, in time for mortgaging her goods a second time. They were mortgaged a third time to Scott & Marshall, in that instance, and they had issued yesterday a warrant for her arrest. So, while she was released yesterday, it was the intention to rearrest her soon again. Her husband has been in jail all the time and will stay there until the grand jury works on his case.

She was arrested, the officers say, in time for mortgaging her goods a second time. They were mortgaged a third time to Scott & Marshall, in that instance, and they had issued yesterday a warrant for her arrest. So, while she was released yesterday, it was the intention to rearrest her soon again. Her husband has been in jail all the time and will stay there until the grand jury works on his case.

She was arrested, the officers say, in time for mortgaging her goods a second time. They were mortgaged a third time to Scott & Marshall, in that instance, and they had issued yesterday a warrant for her arrest. So, while she was released yesterday, it was the intention to rearrest her soon again. Her husband has been in jail all the time and will stay there until the grand jury works on his case.

She was arrested, the officers say, in time for mortgaging her goods a second time. They were mortgaged a third time to Scott & Marshall, in that instance, and they had issued yesterday a warrant for her arrest. So, while she was released yesterday, it was the intention to rearrest her soon again. Her husband has been in jail all the time and will stay there until the grand jury works on his case.

She was arrested, the officers say, in time for mortgaging her goods a second time. They were mortgaged a third time to Scott & Marshall, in that instance, and they had issued yesterday a warrant for her arrest. So, while she was released yesterday, it was the intention to rearrest her soon again. Her husband has been in jail all the time and will stay there until the grand jury works on his case.

She was arrested, the officers say, in time for mortgaging her goods a second time. They were mortgaged a third time to Scott & Marshall, in that instance, and they had issued yesterday a warrant for her arrest. So, while she was released yesterday, it was the intention to rearrest her soon again. Her husband has been in jail all the time and will stay there until the grand jury works on his case.

She was arrested, the officers say, in time for mortgaging her goods a second time. They were mortgaged a third time to Scott & Marshall, in that instance, and they had issued yesterday a warrant for her arrest. So, while she was released yesterday, it was the intention to rearrest her soon again. Her husband has been in jail all the time and will stay there until the grand jury works on his case.

She was arrested, the officers say, in time for mortgaging her goods a second time. They were mortgaged a third time to Scott & Marshall, in that instance, and they had issued yesterday a warrant for her arrest. So, while she was released yesterday, it was the intention to rearrest her soon again. Her husband has been in jail all the time and will stay there until the grand jury works on his case.

She was arrested, the officers say, in time for mortgaging her goods a second time. They were mortgaged a third time to Scott & Marshall, in that instance, and they had issued yesterday a warrant for her arrest. So, while she was released yesterday, it was the intention to rearrest her soon again. Her husband has been in jail all the time and will stay there until the grand jury works on his case.

She was arrested, the officers say, in time for mortgaging her goods a second time. They were mortgaged a third time to Scott & Marshall, in that instance, and they had issued yesterday a warrant for her arrest. So, while she was released yesterday, it was the intention to rearrest her soon again. Her husband has been in jail all the time and will stay there until the grand jury works on his case.

She was arrested, the officers say, in time for mortgaging her goods a second time. They were mortgaged a third time to Scott & Marshall, in that instance, and they had issued yesterday a warrant for her arrest. So, while she was released yesterday, it was the intention to rearrest her soon again. Her husband has been in jail all the time and will stay there until the grand jury works on his case.

RECKLESS DRIVING.

Taylor Rhodes Has an Accident of His Own.

Taylor Rhodes is the man who ran into the buggy of Abram Trimmer Wednesday. Trimmer was driving with his wife on the public road when Rhodes drove up behind them in another buggy, ran into them, overturned their buggy, thereby injuring Mrs. Trimmer quite severely, and then drove on without waiting to see the amount of damage he had done. Soon afterward Rhodes tipped over his own buggy by his reckless driving, throwing his wife and children out into the road. It occurred on the P. D. & E. track out on North Water street, soon after the other affair. He was brought before Justice Curtis on a warrant sworn out by Trimmer, charging him with fast driving, gave $50 bond for his appearance, and the trial was set for Thursday next. He was not over his intoxication when in court. He claims to be able to make a good defense.

STRAY SCRAPS.

The old line U. B. campmeeting begins to-day at Oakland park. The rains yesterday saved the lawns, which already were quite brown.

A plain drunk was arrested late last night on the south side of Lincoln square. B. S. Tyler and family are moving into Theo Nelson's house at 543 North Main street.

The Bloomington canning factory put up 24,000 cans of corn on Wednesday of this week.

H. C. Fredericks, of Sandusky, O., a former resident of Decatur, was in the city yesterday.

W. A. Edwards has taken apartments with Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Tyler, at 543 North Main street.

The window sign of the grocery store lately belonging to Goodman & Moran, now reads "J. J. Moran."

One plain drunk was arrested yesterday morning and turned out at night. He seemed to be a tramp vagrant.

The Y. M. C. A. of Illinois will meet at Englewood on October 8 to 12, inclusive. Several from Decatur will attend.

The people generally commended the light committee of the council for putting the 10 additional drop lights in dark spots on our streets.

H. C. Wilson, of Auburn, Me., is the new general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Bloomington, where handsome new rooms have been fitted up.

You can be a Knight of Pythias for 50 cents at the opera house Sept. 10th. It is a very amusing and instructive lecture that everybody should hear.

Tom Pitner, Max Ruehl, Maud Mills, Della examination for admission to the High Arthur and Ice Conger passed the special school, held last Thursday.

In the county court yesterday the administrator of the estate of William Creekman was authorized to sell personal property both at public and private sale.

The sixth skeleton was found yesterday in the Alfred Dennis gravel bank, this one having with it a long brass spear. The place was probably a Shawnee or Wyandotté graveyard.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Kunkle gave a party yesterday afternoon at their home, 1029 East North street, to about 30 little friends of their daughter Ollie, whose birthday it was. A fine supper was served.

The marriage of Miss Kate Fisk to Dr. G. M. Beebe, of Wichita, Kan., is announced to occur on Sept. 16, at the home of the young lady's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fisk, 835 West Main street.

Yesterday was the first anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Martin, Jr. In commemoration of the day they entertained a small party of friends at tea last night at their home, 937 North Main street.

The next improvement that the Citizens Electric Railway company will make, is to lay the curves at the corner of Water and North streets with heavier rails, as they are now doing on Lincoln square. The curves at the depot will then receive attention.

Thomas Bronson, president of the Kansas Alliance of Illinois, was here yesterday while on his way from St. Louis to Green Valley. He left for that place last night to insulate some new lodges of the order. While in Decatur Mr. Bronson met several local alliance and F. M. B. A. people of more or less prominence.

The price of shoe leathers has already been raised several pegs. Heaver & Glidden received notice from dealers that the prices of Morocco had been advanced again. This is an important matter to the shoe factory proprietors, as they make leather fine shoes, especially, and have orders on hand for a great many cases.

John Lindsey was at St. Louis Thursday to attend a conference of representatives of the different farmers' societies and of prohibitionists. Men were there from several states. After discussing various questions they took up political action, and without coming to a decision, expressed a desire for the organization of once of a new party, with a new name.

Pretty Alice Pitts, who took rough on rats Thursday, was all right yesterday. She told a neighbor, though, that she would make a better job of it next time. Some of her acquaintances express doubts as to whether she took any poison at all. They incline to the opinion that she pretended to have done so, that she might soften her father, who wanted her to help earn her living.

Thomas Finn, of Decatur, will be ordained a Catholic priest to-day at 8 o'clock at Chicago, Archbishop Feelan performing the ceremony. Several of the young man's relatives and friends from Decatur will be present, among them being Mrs. James Venable, Mrs. John Finn, and Miss Mary Finn. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Delahanty, Mrs. Thomas Finn, Patrick Finn, and J. J. Finn, on Monday Rev. Finn will solemnize his first mass at St. Patrick's church, in this city. Special music is being prepared for the occasion, and Very Rev. P. J. Macklin, will preach a sermon.

Early Closing. The clothing salesman's committee called on all the clothing dealers yesterday to ask them if they would not close at 6 o'clock, I, even if Cheap Charlie remained open. All that were seen agreed to do so. Mr. Stine was at Chicago. He is expected back this morning, and the committee will call on him between this and the time of meeting next Monday night.

A week from to-day another meeting of the county association made up of delegates of the F. M. B. A., K. of L. and Grange will be held at the court house. The clothing salesmen now think that they will appoint a committee to visit that meeting and see if they cannot enlist the aid and sympathy of the orders there represented in favor of the early closing movement.

WOMAN'S CLUB REORGANIZED.

Sections Changed to Divisions and New Plan of Work.

The first meeting of the Woman's club since the summer vacation was held yesterday afternoon in the W. C. T. U. rooms, with a large proportion of the members present. As it was the first meeting of the club, considerable business of importance was transacted. Mrs. J. M. Randall, the president, presided.

Miss Annie Henkle was elected secretary and Mrs. J. H. Bevans was chosen treasurer, to fill vacancies that have been made by resignations.

Then the plan of work for the year was discussed. It was decided to reorganize the club into four divisions instead of sections. As it has been, each section has selected its own line of study. As a result it often happened that two sections would be working along the same line.

Yesterday the club organized four divisions and selected the line along which each should work. Members will decide what they want to take up this year, and enter that division. The afternoon of meeting and the line of study of each division